

Nova Scotia Labour Market Priorities Application Guide Changes

As of Aug. 14, 2024

- Editing changes for clarity and consistency.

As of July 1, 2024

- The nomination certificate expires at the end of the month one year after your nomination date.

As of Dec. 1, 2023

- The guide has been updated with a new civic address:

Labour, Skills and Immigration
Immigration and Population Growth
1505 Barrington Street, 4th Floor (Maritime Centre)
Halifax, NS B3J 3K5
CANADA

As of Jan. 5, 2021

- Do not apply if you have received a nomination or endorsement (NSNP or Atlantic Immigration Pilot) within the last 12 months.

As of Dec. 1, 2020

- Editing changes for clarity and consistency.

As of November 2, 2020

- Editing changes for clarity and consistency.

As of September 21, 2020

- Submit your application within 30 calendar days of the date on which your letter of interest was issued

As of May 22, 2020

- Submit your application within 60 calendar days of the date on which your letter of interest was issued

As of April 16, 2020

- Settlement Funds section updated to reflect recent federal guidance on funds required on arrival. Also clarified requirement for applicant's available funds and income to be enough to support all dependents, even if they do not come to Canada with the applicant.
- Email address is immigration@novascotia.ca.